PART 3 - Confidential School Recommendation

To: The Principal, Guidance Counsellor, or Teacher Advisor

National Ski Academy (NSA) is striving to prepare its students for national and international level ski racing and for postsecondary education at the college or university level.

Our program is very demanding - academically, athletically, and personally. We have found that students who have strong executive functioning, interpersonal skills, are well-organized and self-motivated succeed in this environment.

We would appreciate it if you could complete the following reference. We value your comments as a means of helping us to do the best possible job in our selection process.

Upon completion, please send directly from the school to NSA via mail (confidential sealed envelope), or email (application@nsa.on.ca) a transcript and credit counselling summary. These documents can be obtained from your school's guidance and counselling department.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Tobin Walsh
Head of School
